Mangrove
ROOTED IN STRENGTH

A Unit of Bommidi Industries Pvt. Ltd.

Dear Valued Customers, Partners & Associates,

At Mangrove, we are committed to delivering premium-quality products while maintaining the highest standards of service and reliability.

Over the past few months, the global increase in raw material, manufacturing, and logistics costs has significantly impacted the industry. Despite our continuous efforts to absorb these rising expenses, it has become necessary to revise the pricing of selected products. This decision has been made after careful consideration to ensure that we continue to provide the quality, consistency, and value you expect from us.

In addition, due to changes in procurement policies, many of our suppliers now require advance or immediate payment for raw materials. As a result, we have also updated our payment terms to ensure a seamless supply chain and uninterrupted product availability.

We deeply value the trust you have placed in Mangrove and appreciate your continued partnership. Your support enables us to keep delivering innovative, high-quality solutions, and we remain committed to serving you with excellence.
